(08 June 1632 to 02 April 1718)
father of Pricilla Puella Hussey
(10 October 1677 to 23 September 1748)

Stephen Hussey was born in Lynn, Massachusetts on 08 June 1632.(1) He was a seaman like his father, Capt. Christopher Hussey.(2) For a while before he married, Stephen owned land and lived in Barbados in the West Indies.(3) He probably used it as a base for his ship.

HUSSEY

The Husseys of Nantucket are descendants of Stephen Hussey, the son of Christopher. According to Mrs. Hinchman,* Christopher was the son of John Hussey and Mary Wood (or Moor), and was baptized in Dorking, Surrey, England, February 18, 1599. When a young man he spent some time in Holland where he met Theodate, the eldest daughter of Rev. Stephen Bachelor, who he desired to marry. Her father gave his consent contingent on their going to America with him. They arrived in Boston in 1632 on the ship William and Francis, settling first in Lynn, where Christopher's eldest son, Stephen, was the first child baptized by his grandfather in the church in Lynn.

Christopher early removed to Newbury, where he was one of the town's selectmen in 1636. In 1638, with his father-in-law, and others, he settled in Hampton, where he held several town offices. According to the best received opinion, he died in Hampton where, according to the record, he was buried March 8, 1636, leaving two sons and three daughters— Stephen, who married (October 8, 1676) Martha Bunker, daughter of William; John, who married Rebecca Perkins; Huldah, who married John Smith; Mary; and Theodata.

Stephen was the only one to make his home in Nantucket. He was a sea-faring man, had lived at Barbadoes and had accumulated a little property. At the time of the organization of the Friends' Society, in 1708, he was one of the petitioners, a somewhat anomalous condition as he was a most persistent litigant. He several times held office and appeared to be quite a politician, and during the local turmoil following the temporary overturn of the New York government, he was severely denounced by Peter Folger for endeavoring to improperly affect the voting. He had his father's interest in the Island and acquired that of Robert Pike. Worth says,† that the Hussey and Pike lots "were on the west side of Trot's Swamp, but Stephen Hussey built three houses for himself and family, one on Federal Street near Chestnut, another at Monomoy and a third at Shimmoo." He died April 2, 1718, in the 88th year of his age. His wife died 21st, 9 mo. 1744. Their children were:

i Puella, born October 10, 1677; married Shubael Gorham of Barnstable.

†Lands and Land Owners, p. 70. Patronymica Britannica says of the name—"According to Stapleton's Rotuli Scaccarii Normanniae Osbert de H. who was living in 1180 was so named from le Hozu, a fief in the parish of Grand Quevilly near Rouen. And one Henry de la Hosse, or Henze held inter alias, the sands of Hosse * * * In an old account of the Hussey family, the name is said to be Touasi de Hosa—from a boot of buskin" and the crest borne was a boot."
